That paper is mistaken. may have been the result of the cause in Of the million of voters there are in the which they fell, remember that they died for South, not five thousand took part in ap- us, fighting, they honestly believed, to make pointing delegates to Philadelphia. The same is true as to the last Philadelphia Convention. The truth is, these Conventions are irresponsible, and gotten up by a few politicians. Such Conventions can not restore the Union. We are not sure but they add to the ill feeling between the sections, and thus postpone the day of friendly re-union

Many of the Virginia journals are denothering Gov. Pierpoint as a usurper. When Gov. Pierpoint assumed office at Richmond, some fourteen months since, he seemed to be generally respected and confided in. He has been of great service to many who now assail him, in procuring their pardons for them are disabled, and to those whose protectors and saving their property from confiscation. Few. however, thank him for this, for the plain reason that they feel themselves entitled to their pardons, not having done any thing, as they think, to be pardoned for. If the Jeff Davis radicals of Virginia had half a chance, they would unseat Gov. Pierpoint by the strong hand, and put Gen. Lee or Gov. Wise in his place. They cannot bear the idea of being governed by such "mean wlites" as Gen. Terry and Gov. Pierpoint. They think "the chivalry" ought to rule.

The Sentinel says: "No legislator will be sastained by the people, who advocates at this crisis the imposition of high State taxes and the extension of State credit," We agree with the Sentinel, but if we had said this we should most probably have been called a repudiator. The final payment of toth public and private debts depends, in our opinion, on our early return to the Union. If this State should elect to remain out of the Union indefinitely, or until the politicians who now unfortunately control her destiny can obtain their own terms, then farewell to all the old debt, both public and private.

We are under obligations to friends for the efforts they are making to increase our subscription list. We acknowledge clubs for the Weekly at Joyner's and Jonesborough, North-Carolina.

Speech of Gen. Wade Hampton.

At a meeting held by the soldiers of Anderson District for the purpose of forming a Soldiers' Association, Gen. Wade Hampton was waited upon by a committee, and in response delivered the following speech: BROTHER SOLDIERS OF ANDERSON: I deem myself fortunate that accident has given me and of participating in the laudable objects contemplated by your meeiing; and that pleasure is greatly enhanced by seeing around me many of the brave men wnom it was my good fortune to command during the war .-These mountain regions gave to the armies of the South some of our best soldiers, and it is due to them that I should declare, what I do here with infinite gratification, that I had in my ranks none better, braver or more devoted than the men of this and the adjoining districts. In your presence I desire to tender to them my heartfelt thanks for their conduct as soldiers. They have the proud consciousness of having performed their duty to the State, and this will be some compensation to them for the result of the war. And, brother soldiers, while we acquiesce in the result, let us not admit that the cause it self was unjustifiable or wrong. I accept the terms upon which we laid down our arms in good faith, and it is our duty to observe these terms faithfully; but while I do this, I shall never say that we had not right on our side-I shall never hold my State as guilty or her sons as traitors. The cause is not to be judged by success or failure. Success does not inevitably make right or truth or justice, nor does failure always imply evil. wrong or falsehood. If the justice of a cause always insure success, Poland, Hungary and Ireland would not now groan under the heel of the oppressor, nor would the South be reduced to the sad condition in which she finds | most attractive in the South. herself to-day. But sad as is the condition of our beloved land, we must not forsake it. She has need of all her sons. You know that in years that are just passed you regarded it as your highest duty to stand by your colors. So now it is your duty to stand by your State. Her colors are nailed to the mast and let us stand or fall with her. Give her all the aid you can, and if she sinks, at least let us go down with her For these reasons I have discouraged emigration. Sold by all Druggists. PITTSBURG, May 10, 1866. Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:

GENTLEMEN: During a visit to the West last fall. I contracted chills and fever which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my bed for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health; having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights-all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by the fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined but afterward yielded my prejudices, and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much,) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and, in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation in order that others may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice prevented me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the bencficial effect which your Bitters had on me, recommended that I use them regularly. Yours, very respectfully, E. BOURNE, No. 45, Market St. 33-w-1m INVITE THE ATTENTION OF ALL FIRST class buyers to their stock of Dry Goods. It will be found unsurpassed for all Southern Merchants. All departments of our business have been much enlarged, especially that for Dress Goods, where we are constantly opening all the novelties of the season, to which we now ask the particular attention of both Jobbers and Retailers. Our stock consists of

Dress Goods, Shawls and Cloaks, Prints, Bleached Shirtings, Brown Sheetings, Flannels and Blankets, Woolen Goods,

Yankee Notions, White Goods. Embroideries, r Hosiery, Gents Furnishing Goods,

Millinery Goods. &c., &e., All of which they offer at the lowest market prices by the package or piece.

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF NORTH-CAROLINA! Convention, 1866.

THE STATE CONVENTION OF COLORER men, held in this City last September, as a me-dium through which the colored citizens could communicate their thoughts, purposes and de sires, formed a State League, with its auxiliaries ok after the interests of the Colored People nemorialized in behalf of the colored people and our petition was treated with respectful con-sideration. We have, as far as practicable, established auxiliary Leagues to promote the cause of Education, and to look after the suffering poor. While we feel a deep sense of gratitude to those Benevolent Societies which have done so much for the Freedman, still we are conscious o the fact that we must learn to rely upon our-selves, and the world is looking to us for a demonstration of our capacity to perform the part of useful, intelligent citizens. The State League is the only recognized organization we, as a colored people, have; and it having performed its duties to the best of its ability, it was enjoined on us to call another Convertion, to be held in the City of Raleigh, on the first Tuesday in October next, the second day of the month. Let each County be represented as the Counties are represented in the State Legis-lature. In Counties where there are Leagues, the Counties to be represented by the Leagues Let each County send its best men as delegates This is no time to compliment friends at the expense of the public good. Let the people be in-fluenced only by the consideration of qualifica-tion, and let the delegates be nere promptly on the day appointed, that we may counsel together for the good of our people, and adopt such measures as will best promote our interests.

measures as will best promote our interests.

It is carnestly desired that every county be Delegates will come prepared to defray the ex penses of the Convention.
